

ISU World Figure Skating Championships 2019

Update to the venue location for the Small Medal Ceremony on Sunday, March 24th

Due to an increase in the number of people wishing to attend the Small Medal Ceremony for the ISU World Figure Skating Championships 2019, the location for Sunday, March 24 has been changed as shown below, to ensure safety of the guests and orderly operations at and around the venue.

People wishing to view the Small Medal Ceremony are asked to read and note the following, and to act in accordance with instructions from the venue staff.

Details

Start time: 12:45, Sunday, March 24

Location: Community Arena at the Saitama Super Arena

Price: No fee required

Schedule:

From 6:00: Block designation tickets will be distributed near the Saitama Super Arena A Gate.

- The venue will be divided into zones, ranging from Block A to G (please confirm the block zoning this day). Please pick a ticket from the lottery box of your preferred block.
- The block tickets are all numbered, with the numbers indicating the order that you will be allowed into your block.
- Guests in wheelchairs will only be able to access Block G due to structural constraints.

From 10:45: Ticket holders will be lined up by zone in the order of their numbers.

From 11:45: The block spaces will open for entry.

From 12:45: Small Medal Ceremonies for Ice Dance and Men to start.

14:15: End of program.

Important:

- Dangerous conduct such as waiting in advance at or near the venue from the night before or early in the morning is strictly forbidden.
- Due to limited capacity, please be aware that the ticket distribution will end when capacity is filled.
- Only one ticket per person will be distributed.
- The Small Medal Ceremonies for Pairs and Ladies will be held as announced, on Saturday, March 23rd, at the special stage in front of the ticket box.
- Please follow instructions from the venue staff during this time.
- The organizer will not be responsible for any issues between guests.
- Under no circumstances will people who have lost their tickets be allowed in.
